On December 20, 2021, a 12-year-old girl in Las Vegas named Arielle De La Rosa was banned from Roblox for what she believed was a "harassment campaign". She had created a character named Emily Roe that she used to bully another player online. The bullying campaign went on for over a year until it came to her parents' attention and they contacted Roblox about it. The harassment campaign violated the Child Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). Her parents encouraged her to create a character named "Emily Roe" and they hoped that this would help her get unbanned from Roblox.

For example, Jailbreak offers a premium feature which allows players to purchase more life points. As the game is free, there is no way for them to gain XP in the traditional sense. Instead of implementing XP via cash or coin drop-rates (as would be done in a game that relies on premium features), they offer more life points as a way to make it easier for players if they choose to purchase them. Free games also don't have an option of offering premium features that modify their economies or XP systems. Therefore, they usually offer only the default system as an option for non-Premium members.

One of the users who quit Roblox because of this issue is a user named "Ezthero," a former moderator for ROBLOX's forums. Some others have also left the website after they learned that ROBLOX would get more money from their games if they did not sell them. However, Roblox has said that they do pay royalties to their users but only to those with large fanbases who are able to earn a lot from their games.

I love Roblox, but there are some things that I don't like. My favorite aspects of Roblox are that it's fun and easy to play with my friends online, and it has funny ways of making you laugh or feeling nervous. My least favorite aspect is that if you use your neighbor's computer (turn it on/jack in) you can't change your username or skin. Also, there are players who break laws such as swear words, so they get banned from Roblox for doing so. I don't think Roblox should be edited at all, but just taken off.

The merger began on March 11 with servers down for two hours beginning at 5 am Pacific Time (8:00 UTC). This was followed by two more short downtimes on March 17 and March 26 before all character transfers were completed. The merger of servers resulted in the creation of a single player vs. player server and a single role-playing server. The role-playing server was created to stop the underpopulated game world from splitting into two more servers.[62]

ROBLOX has also been compared to popular game Minecraft. In many ways, they are similar; both games have been developed by one company (Tencent) and are usually sold on the same platform (Windows, OS X, iOS, Android). Another close similarity is that they both have their own in-game currency system. However, Minecraft has a different style of gameplay relating to platforming; while ROBLOX players build and destroy using building blocks, Minecraft players explore a world.
