ROBLOX collects account information from users using its Trusted ID system. The process is designed to make it easier for ROBLOX to provide players with a personalized experience and more opportunities to earn credits online. The program does treat user privacy concerns seriously, however, and requires notice before any account information becomes public. Players can adjust their personal settings on their profile page on the website.

On multiple occasions, ROBLOX has been hacked into by outside sources. In one of the more recent hacks (2021), hackers took advantage of an exploit to provide themselves with unlimited build tools in games. Users without knowledge of the exploit were forced to leave the game because the tools were infinite and other players could not stop them. This issue was not fixed until two days later. [9] ROBLOX has a rule against using bots (automated scripts that allow players to automatically perform actions) but this rule can be easily bypassed due to the fact that users are able to easily create incredibly powerful bots with simple scripting. The easier ROBLOX makes it for users to create powerful scripts, the more likely they are going to be used in botting and/or spamming games. This is one of the reasons why user-created games like "The Plaza" have been taken down.

Builders Club Premium can be used in games greatly increasing the amount of Robux and/or XP a player earns by a given amount. If used, then Builder's Club is required to play those games. There are two types of premium features: content premium and currency premium. Content Premiums typically involves a single item or feature that changes the game mechanic, such as more life points and/or more room to build, or increased maximum health for monsters. Currency Premiums usually involve the addition of new items to the game that are only available through favorable conditions (for example, allowing players to purchase a specific item for Robux). Some Currency Premiums can also require membership in Builders Club.
