Farmville: This is yet another example of a game that doesn't really offer any value at all but still manages to make a ton of money. It's a very bizarre concept which involves fun because you think you're going to become rich by buying fake farm products and selling them or you can become popular by posting pictures of your fake farm products and getting attention from people who want similar things. I mean, if this is what people want then it's really no different than Roblox except with Farmville you're dealing with real money.

ROBLOX has also been criticised for its lack of badge incentives for participating in games, or even logging into the site at all. ROBLOX models these badges and credit prizes after the badges found in games like Journey, where a lot of doing nothing gives you a lot of money, which is possibly a reason some players don't log in. ROBLOX also has very few quests to complete that reward badges/credits.

In July 2021, Roblox had allegedly banned several high-profile creators due to the fact they made violent games. Although Roblox claims users were banned "due to improper behaviour" nothing has been proven yet. The situation is occurring in many forums and websites. In July 2021, ROBLOX put out a statement saying that they did not ban any creators, but instead were involved in a legal dispute with the people who claimed to have been banned.[82] They later said that anyone who was banned for making offensive content was "part of an organized effort by bad actors to scam our users. We have no tolerance for this behavior and we're doing everything we can to protect our community." [83]

The product was heavily criticized by users who claimed it was just a copy of YouTube.[87] On September 24th, 2021 ROBLOX announced that they would no longer make updates or interact with people's comments.[88] It is unknown if they will continue making content for the channel. However, ROBLOX did announce that they are continuing to work on improving their products.
